NISTOR AND NISTOR TWO GOOD IN THE STRATIFLIGHTED CHAMPIONSHIP PAIRS

Yesterday, Raluca Nistor and Radu Nistor triumphed mightily in the second of our Blue Ribbon events, the Stratiflighted Championship Pairs.

We salute this Peerless Pair on an absolutely magnificent win.

And we like Raluca's bag!

PURE GOLD IN THE GOLD RUSH PAIRS

It was a golden day yesterday for Grace Patterson (L) and José Marshall from Halifax as they topped the leaderboard in the Bermuda Gold Rush Pairs.

Playing to the Max, Halifax!

With this win, José also became a Life Master (or Mistress), so special congratulations to her.

Well played, Winning Women!

GALA TICKET COLLECTION
Please collect your banquet tickets from the Hospitality Desk today BEFORE 1 P.M.
Tickets will be paid for as a charge to your room if you are a resident in this hotel or by CASH ($125) if not.

DREAM TEAMS

Scoring big and securing victory in Flight B/C of the Championship Knock-Out Teams which finished yesterday were (L to R) John Macgregor, Isabella Chaplet, Margie Knickle, and Glen Dexter.

Good job, Team,
we applaud you on this fine performance.

Congratulations to the awesome foursome of (L to R) Radu Nistor, Barbara McLendon, Allison Freeland and May Sakr who secured victory in Flight A of the Wed/Thurs SwissTeams yesterday.

And you can take that win to the bank!
Congratulations on a superb result.

Laurels locals for a sweet win in Flight C of the Wed/Thurs Swiss Teams yesterday.

There'll be a glass or two raised somewhere in the hotel tonight, and we join them in a toast to their victory,

PAST HANDS – YESTERDAY'S BEST
by ROBERT TODD

A Nicely Bid and Played Slam

Dealer: North
Vul: None Vul

	♠ A7 ♥ QT876 ♦ AQT ♣ AQ5
♠ JT3 ♥ A9542 ♦ 5 ♣ JT64		♠ 86542 ♥ KJ ♦ 6432 ♣ 97
	♠ KQ9 ♥ 3 ♦ KJ987 ♣ K832

NORTH	EAST	SOUTH	WEST
1♥	Pass	2♦	Pass
3♦	Pass	3NT	Pass
4♣	Pass	4♦	Pass
4♠	Pass	4NT	Pass
5♦	Pass	6♦	All Pass

This is an interesting hand for the Monday-Tuesday Championship Pairs where only one pair bid and made slam.

North Opens 1♥ and South made a 2/1 Game-Forcing bid of 2♦. The partnership had a common and good expert agreement that 2♦ shows a 5-card suit – they use 2♣ as a "2/1 GF that could be short". This allowed North to raise to 3♦, knowing their side has a 5-3 ♦ fit. After 3NT by South, North continues on to making control showing bids and then use 4NT as Keycard in ♦, eventually landing in 6♦.

The play seems straight-forward. There are 5♦, 3♠, and 3♣ for a sure 11 tricks. If the ♣ split 3-3 then we have a 12th trick.

But before simply playing for this layout, draw trump and give up a ♥. Then return to the dummy and ruff a ♥. When the ♥KJ falls, then West is isolated to guard both the ♥ and the ♣ suit.

When you cash the final ♠ winners West is in trouble. They cannot keep the ♥A and all 4 of their ♣. So your final ♣ will become good – a nice squeeze and 12 tricks!

Again, well done Ale!!

Don Duncan and Mel Purdy
from Ontario took top honours in the Wed/Thurs morning B/C Pairs and we congratulate them on this win.
Way to go, On-ta-rio.

Ruth Weston (MA) and Richard Palmer (AZ).
members of our Pompano group.
triumphed in the Wed/Thurs afternoon A/X Pairs.

We are so thrilled to see such loyal supporters of our Tournament do so well, and give them a big yay and an even bigger round of applause on their win.

Even more impressive is that Richard achieved SAPPHIRE Life Master with us this week. We are proud that he attained this level at our Regional and we heartily applaud him.

BERMUDA BRIEFS: THE BERMUDA BRIDGE CLUB
With thanks to Tony Saunders for his research.

If you are staying on in Bermuda after our Tournament finishes, or if you visit these islands at any other time, you might be interested in a convivial game of Bridge at the only Bridge Club in Bermuda. It's fairly safe to say that you won't find a more hospitable experience anywhere.

The Bermuda Bridge Club as an organization was founded in 1932 and bridge was played at various locations on the Island until, in 1974, under the then Club President Grant Horneffer, work was begun on the Clubhouse on Pomander Road in Paget. Partly financed by the members in the form of donations and interest-free debentures, and since then developed and maintained by their generosity and hard work, the Clubhouse has always held a special place in the hearts of Bermuda's bridge players.

Such affection was exemplified at the outset when Grant Horneffer, in Churchillian fashion, declared, "This clubhouse will be built if I have to do it with my own bare hands" (a plaque bearing these words hangs to this day in the Clubhouse), and then later when a subsequent Club President, who was a dab hand with emulsion, sobbed that it was his very own "@#?!% Sistine Chapel" (there is no plaque bearing these words – anywhere!).

Members past and present have gone to extraordinary lengths to protect and preserve the building. On one occasion, while blundering through the bushes, allegedly in search of the Clubhouse boundaries, mild-mannered Dr Ian Harvey surprised a gang of youths up to no good at the back door. With no thought for his own safety, our hero shouted a sharp, "Shoo!" and waved wildly in the air with the tea towel on which he had been kneeling to protect his flannels, whereupon the gang simply melted away. Whether they were ACTUALLY carrying a bag marked "SWAG", as the daredevil doctor later claimed, could not afterwards be established with any certainty, but in that bygone age when a pursed lip and a wagged finger could vanquish villains, it is entirely possible.

On another occasion, after a particularly lively party the night before, this very Bulletin Editor surprised the glamorous Jean Johnson gamely vacuuming the clubhouse carpet, awkwardly wielding the unfamiliar apparatus with hands gloved in designer Marigolds, presumably to insulate her against the shock of such unaccustomed housework!

The history of the Bermuda Bridge Club has been chequered, often reflecting the social tensions of the times; Agnes Manners, for example, was deemed not to have any at all (manners, that is) and was drummed out of the club for slurping her afternoon tea too loudly; such a situation now seems laughable – the more noise you make when you drink these days, the more likely you are to be voted on to some management committee or another.

For all the Bridge Club's many vagaries, most are agreed that life has delivered some pretty decent times within its walls, but don't take our word for it – check out game times at www.bermudabridge.com and come on down – you will be guaranteed the most amazingly warm welcome there.

AFTERNOON DELIGHT – HOT TODDY SIZZLES!

With his usual easy charm, Robert Todd captivated his audience with handy tips on Opening Leads, Discards, and Signalling, adding a hefty portion of witty asides which had the audience SPLITTING their sides in laughter.
As usual, with this presenter, there were far too many interesting and useful tips to detail here so copies of his notes may be found in the playing room.

Suffice it to say, Hot Toddy crackled and popped, fully satisfying former acolytes while attracting a bevy of new fans, and we thank him for a fun-filled and informative expert lecture.
