The Bermuda Regional Bridge Tournament, 2024

Saturday, February 1st

Editor: Janet Evans

Bulletin No.8

THE FINAL BOW FOR TEAM GOSLING

The curtain may be falling on this year's tournament but the standards certainly aren't as was convincingly demonstrated by Team Gosling who scored a stunning local victory in the Flight A of yesterday's prestigious IGI Stratiflighted Swiss Teams.

John Glynn, Gertie Barker, Rachael Gosling (all from Bermuda) and Robert Todd from Florida take the final bow in this year's Bermuda Regional and earn the last hurrah of 2025, for it is now time to bring the curtain down on what we hope has been an unforgettable tournament for you all.

We expect to see all four of these players on the dance floor tonight electric sliding for all they're worth!

TOP TEAMS TALLY!

Another fine win in Flight X of the Championship Swiss Teams was bagged yesterday by the now familiar team of (L to R)
John Macgregor, Isabella Chaplet, Margie Knickle, and Glen Dexter.
We congratulate them on this result and on a great week of Bridge in general.

Flights B and C in the IGI Swiss yesterday were won by (L to R)
Claude Guay (Bda), Carol Pastushok (NJ), Lisa Ferrari (Bda) and Betsy Baillie (Bda).
This is a great win and we salute them!
Nice job, Team!

Winning in Flight D of the IGI Swiss event yesterday was the local team of (L to R)
Duncan Silver, Marion Silver, Mike Dawson and Joann Dawson, and we congratulate them on this splendid win.
Hail to Bermuda definitely sums it up!

Oh, thank goodness – a fourth!

WINNERS, WINNERS, EVERYWHERE

Familiar local faves, Peter Donnellan and Lynanne Bolton won yesterday morning's side pairs, and we say three cheers for them!

Margot Hennings and Bill Souster were worthy runners-up in the Wed/Thurs Championship Pairs competition and are included here for the following reasons: a) because they ARE worthy b) because Margot is the ACBL President and we're glad she came c) because they represent another triumph for our Partnerships Desk who put them together and d) because Bill is the Ed's husband and there's domestic harmony to be considered.
Great result, both!

Congratulations to local player, Tracy Nash, on achieving the status of Life Master (or Mistress) this week.
Way to go, girl!

THREE AMIGOS
Three old friends from Serbia re-united this week to play bridge at our Tournament and they are (L to R):
Misha Novakovic, Dragan Basta and Zeljko Sokolovic.
They have handily positioned themselves in front of a piece of modern art in the lobby;
Thus, the Ancient World meets the New in this pic.

Three heads are better than one,
so six should make them invincible.
Welcome!

THE MASTERPOINT TROPHY WINNERS

THE MAUDE LINES TROPHY

Awarded to the visiting player (s) who has (have) won the most master points in Trophy Events

Alejandro Bianchedi (NY) and Perla Sultan (FL) have swept all before them this week and are truly deserving winners of this major award. Congratulations to them both.

THE NORMAN BACH TROPHY

Awarded to the local player who has won the most master points in Trophy Events this week

One of the loudest cheers of the night was for Rachael Gosling who won this coveted award, a just reward for her excellence at the bridge table as well as running a great Tournament. Well done, Rachael!

THE LONGTAIL TROPHY

Awarded to the visiting junior player who started the week with 50 or fewer points and has won the most master points this week.

This award went to Jane Iredale, of Massachutsetts, who had a brilliant week with us. Unfortunately, she had left by the time of the Prizegiving, but we raise a glass or two to her in her absence. Nice work, Jane!

THE KARL STANLEY HICKS TROPHY

Awarded to the local junior player who started the week with 20 or fewer points and has won the most master points this week.

What a week for Julia Tadman and Joshimar Hussey who played so well and consistently throughout the week in this, their first ever Tournament, to win this award. The future is looking bright for Bermuda Bridge - kudos to you two.

As with any busy group, its always difficult to get everyone together in the same place at the same time.
So it is with this Regional 2025 Committee picture as we are missing Sharon Shanahan and Lorna Anderson.
I think we're all agreed, however, that the Twice as Nicers have done a wonderful job this week.
5 to R
Lisa Rhind, Tracy Nash, Gertie Barker, Stephanie Kyme, Steve Cosham, Rachael Gosling, Judy Bussell, John Glynn, and Judy King.
Photobombing (by invitation) is the ever-popular Robert Todd.
Congrats on a great Tournament, everyone!

THREE QUEENS

Three queens in any hand (especially a Poker hand) are usually a good thing and it was certainly good to see three former Queens of our Tournament on hand playing yesterday.
From L to R:
Jane Clipper, Katrina Van Pelt and Lynanne Bolton.
Welcome, Your Majesties!

It was good to see Chris Crumpler from the Department of Tourism yesterday as he dropped by to say hello to some of our locals and visitors this week.
Bermuda Tourism is a major sponsor of our Tournament and we thank them for their tremendous support.

The Editor's Thanks

The Bulletin Ed would like to thank the following for all their help in Bulletin production and in other ways:

The Bulletin Rescue Squad. When the paper-jam gremlins attacked in the middle of the week when bulletin production had been going so swimmingly, it was a great comfort to have on hand people who were prepared to kneel on the floor (and get back up nimbly) to do battle with the jam. These flexible helpers were Rachael Gosling and Steve Cosham.

The Expert. This year, Robert once again braved the Lioness's Den all on his-er-todd, expert-wise. Not only did he survive the ordeal, but he actually delivered a top-class lecture and did especially brilliantly at the bridge table to boot. Thanks to him for being invariably cheerful and extremely accommodating with the extras demanded of him.

Rachael, Steve and the Twice as Nicers. The Dynamic Doubleton and the Twice as Nicers have been extremely supportive and helpful throughout, despite their own busy schedules, proving themselves a Nicer than Nice Committee in every way. Special mention here to Judy King, the Cyber Queen – I don't know exactly what she did at the beginning of the week but cyber stuff went very smoothly this year.

Rachael and Teddy Gosling. Special thanks to these two who kept the intricate machinery of bulletin production well and generously lubricated this week – if you catch my drift - hic!

The HP Staff. The HP staff have been, as usual, helpful and accommodating all week, going the extra mile on many occasions. Special thanks to Hal Browne who finally declared the Rag to be a legitimate work of art, thus allowing us to display it in the hotel lobby. I also thank and apologize profusely to the HP staff who will have to clear away the many, many empty wine glasses and other late-night debris when we leave.

The Prophet Ezekiel We tremble before his awesomeness, but praise and thank him for the columns which he brought down from the metaphorical mountaintop and graciously shared with us. We simply are not worthy, although we try year after year!

The Directors. The Famous Five were – well – spiffing once again this year and special thanks go to Jack who contributed articles and fillers to bridge the Bulletin gaps and to up the Rag's information and entertainment wattage. Thanks also to David Metcalfe, the Keyboard Wizard, who, once again provided data at the drop of a hat. And big thanks, as ever, to Jack and Lisa Rhind for their continued and generous pre-tournament hospitality this year and in years gone by.

Stephanie Kyme and Bella. Thanks to La Presidenta and the beautiful Bella for their amazing hospitality and helpfulness during our visit, which gave us a very comfortable and enjoyable lead-in to the frenzied business of bulletin production.

Victor and Magda Thanks to these roadsters for taking us for a ride - one way and another, thus helping us avoid the ignominy of hiring a Toy-Town car.

Bill. The ole ball and chain has been indispensable in the bulletin room this week, having developed a more efficient way of folding a tight crease into the bulletins. So, I thank him for all the extra support when he has once again seen me truly at my worst.

AND, OF COURSE, THANKS TO ALL OF YOU for all the lovely and supportive things you've said about the Rag, and for reading it in the first place!

This deal was used in an intermediate class on play. The bidding was designated to be the same at every table, as was the lead – the nine of hearts.

At one table, the heart was covered by the queen, king, and ace. Declarer drew trumps with his king and dummy's ace then led a club from dummy. The defenders took two clubs and had to make a diamond trick: four spades making.

At a second table, the nine of hearts was again covered by the queen but, here, East was cannier, playing the two of hearts. Then declarer had to lose two clubs and two diamonds for a one-trick set.

The correct play was found at a third table. Declarer played the four of hearts from dummy at trick one. After taking his ace of hearts, declarer drew trumps with the king and queen then played his remaining heart to dummy's ten and East's king. East's continuation of the queen of clubs was covered by the king and ace. After winning the club continuation with the ten, East shifted to the ten of diamonds. Declarer won with the ace and crossed to dummy with a trump to the ace to throw his losing diamonds on the queen and jack of hearts. Smart play, huh?

A FINAL SALUTE TO ALL THIS WEEK'S WINNERS

Congratulations to you all! We hope you've had the best of times and that you'll come back next year to defend your titles!
